Nashville Engineer Takes on Boston's Music Scene
J Franze elected Vice-Chairman of the Audio Engineering Society – Boston Chapter

Boston, MA. – J Franze has over 20 years of experience in the recording industry. He has worked in major studios in Nashville, New York, and Boston; for companies such as NBC, Comedy Central and Saturday Night Live. His credits include Johnny Cash, Dolly Parton, Phil Vasser, Keith Urban, and many more. Now he is back in the Boston area bringing his experience, education and talent to benefit local artists with superior, professional producing and engineering.

Franze, who is a producer/engineer, has begun exploring new relationships with independent and major labels in the New England area. He takes special interest in the local Indie artists that may need that guidance and leverage to make it in the music business.

Franze has taught at nationally renowned recording arts schools and universities such as Full Sail University, Orlando, FL; International Academy of Art and Design, Nashville, TN; and SAE Institute of Technology, Nashville, TN. He will now share his advanced knowledge of the recording industry through his association with AES. Franze was recently elected 2008-2009 Vice-Chairman of the Audio Engineering Society's Boston Chapter. He looks forward to serving and educating engineers and students through the Audio Engineering Society in the Boston area.
